

Parker Henley

Planning Coordinator

phenley@bridgeworthllc.com
205.208.8664 — Birmingham, AL

"I feel fortunate to have the opportunity to establish relationships with our clients while helping them navigate the path to reach their financial goals."

As a 2020 graduate of Auburn University, Parker comes to Bridgeworth with a Finance degree and an enthusiasm to find a career where he could continue to learn while benefitting others. Bridgeworth felt like home after seeing Financial Planning as a great outlet to draw from his deep-rooted attention to building relationships and maintains his curiosity for investment research and solutions.

As a planning coordinator, Parker assists advisors in client meeting preparation, financial plan review, and follow-up actions. A big portion of his day-to-day responsibilities include supporting the investment team. Parkers' passion for excelling in the financial planning field enriches the experience and relationships with our clients and their needs.

Parker, who is also a trained pilot, is a native of Birmingham. He is an active member of St. Mary's on the Highlands, a graduate member of Auburn's Phi Gamma Delta chapter, and likes to enjoy the outdoors and attend local sporting events in his spare time.
